Pastor's Greeting

Welcome to the fall season at New Life.

This newsletter is designed to help communicate the ministries of our church that you can be a part of – as a participant, volunteer leader or prayer supporter. As you can see, our life together is rich and vibrant, and be assured there is room for everyone.

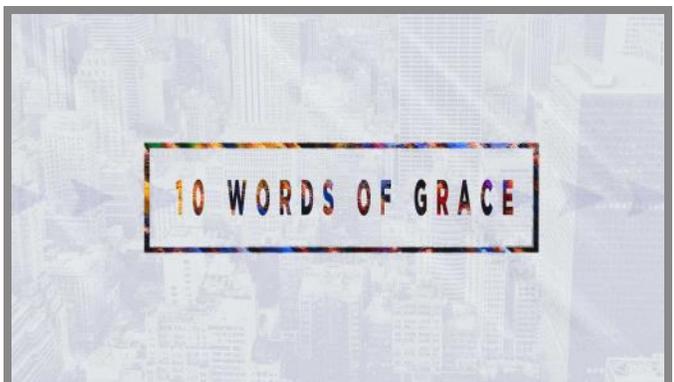

Know, too, that keeping people busy is not our objective, following Jesus is. To that end, what we do in our life together must be about practicing what Jesus practiced so that we can be like him. Some of our activities are for those already following Christ, and some are for inviting people into the Jesus life.

Be reminded, too, that God has given every Christian gifts and experiences to be shared with others. We're the Body of Christ, and we need each other – all of us. I encourage you to participate in the ministries and activities of your Christian family called New Life, so that all God has given us can be used to glorify Him.

A quick word about our messages this fall. My goal continues to be that I teach basic foundational truths that ground us in God's truth so that we can follow Jesus effectively. To that end, our study of the 10 Commandments reminds us that God must be the object and subject of our worship, that our love for others will illustrate to the world how good He is, and that the 10 Commandments were given to us to lead us to our Savior, Jesus.

God bless each of you in your walk with our Lord.

God Stories

As a full-time missionary I live by faith. I don't receive a regular paycheck like most folks, so the income is a little unpredictable. Recently someone had given me $200; I quickly tithed $20 to a fellow missionary. A few days later another friend of mine was sharing about how he was trying to raise support in order to fly home and renew his passport.

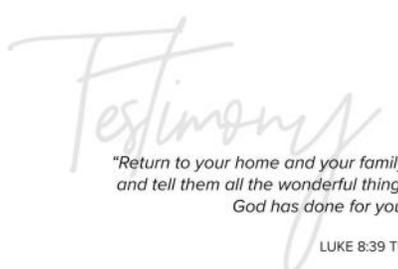

As my friend was talking, I wished that I could help him somehow. I went back to my room and I felt the Lord ask me to give my friend the $100 bill from my wallet. I made up my mind I would do so. After I said yes to Him, I felt the Lord encourage me that while I was home I would receive $1000, so giving the $100 would just be an advance tithe. I felt that the Lord wanted me to put my faith into action and by giving away the $100 I was declaring with my actions that God would give me that $1000.

I excitedly found my friend and gave him the $100 telling him how happy I was to help him get home, and also excited because God was going provide for me $1000! Fast forward a couple weeks and I was out for coffee with someone. They asked for my email address so that they could transfer some money to help support my work. I was excited and grateful for their generosity.

I went home to check the email and confirm that the transfer went through when I saw that they had given me exactly $1000. I jumped up and shouted for joy nearly falling out of my chair in the process.

It was so much fun to celebrate that God was faithful to do what He had said to me! Living by faith has its challenges, but as I continue to surrender my finances to Him, I see Him provide for me in incredible ways and I have loved being a part of Him blessing others through my own giving.
